NOTING WESTERN CAROLINA IN THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE BASEBALL TOURNAMENT:

• Western Carolina enters the 2015 Southern Conference Baseball Championship as the No. 7 seed ... It is just the second-time in program history that WCU has been the seventh seed - the previous time was in 2008 in head coach Bobby Moranda's first season ... the Catamounts posted a 1-2 record in the conference championship crowing event in 2008;

• WCU went 4-5 this year against the four teams in its side of the bracket - #2 Samford, 1-2; #3 Wofford, 2-1; #6 Furman, 1-2 ... the Catamounts enter the 2015 tournament with an overall record in SoCon Tourney play against those same three teams of 9-6 (Furman, 6-5; Samford, 1-1; Wofford, 2-0);

• The Catamounts have won nine Southern Conference Tournament titles all-time, the most of any SoCon school ... WCU has also made 15 appearances in the SoCon Tournament title game including most recently in the 2010 season ... the Catamounts last won the tournament title in 2003 ... Of WCU's nine tournament titles, seven have come when the Catamounts were a No. 1 seed (No. 2 in 1985, 1993) ... WCU has only missed one SoCon tournament since the event's inception in 1984, missing the 2000 tournament under then first-year head coach Todd Raleigh;

• WCU has won 67 games in the SoCon tournament all-time, the second-most among current conference schools ... The Citadel has won 69 tournament games to lead all-time ... Western Carolina has a .593 winning percentage (67-46) in the conference tournament;

• Western Carolina is 49-37 (.570) in tournament games played in Charleston, S.C., with four of its nine tournament championships coming in the South Carolina Lowcountry ... WCU most recently won the 2003 title at Riley Park and advanced to the 2010 championship game at the same venue;

• Including Western Carolina's nine titles, teams in WCU's bracket have won 13 of the previous 31 Southern Conference Tournament Championships: Western Carolina, 9 ... No. 2 Samford, 1 (2012) ... No. 3 Wofford, 1 (2007) ... No. 6 Furman, 2 (1991, 2005).

LEADING OFF FOR THE CATAMOUNTS:

• Western Carolina enters the 2015 Southern Conference Tournament after winning its final game of the regular season, an 11-6 victory over VMI ... the Catamounts are just 3-6 in the month of May entering the post-season ... WCU avoided Tuesday's single-elimination, No. 8 vs. No. 9 game with its one victory over VMI - also, Furman's win over The Citadel on Friday aided WCU in moving into Wednesday's first full day;

• WCU snapped a season-long winless drought of four-straight games with the road win over Tennessee Tech ... WCU's longest seasonal win streak is three;

• Of Western Carolina's 21 victories this season, 14 have come within the friendly confines of Childress Field/Hennon Stadium ... WCU is 14-11 at home this year ... the Catamounts are just 5-16 on the road this season and 7-17 in games away from Cullowhee (2-1 on neutral fields) ... WCU has been outscored, 191-to-127, away from Cullowhee this year, including 174-to-107 in true road games this year;

• Injuries have plagued the Catamounts in 2015, losing starting shortstop J.D. Long for the season with starting center fielder Matt Smith relegated to the designated hitter role with a throwing arm injury, and is also battling a knee issue ... Smith worked his way back into the outfield over the past four games ... Outfielder Austin Atwell has been sidelined with a wrist injury ... Reliever Colton Davis has been limited with an elbow issue ... WCU has been without preseason Southern Conference Player of the Year – and preseason All-America first baseman – Jacob Hoyle most of the season ... And recently, senior closer Tyler Powell has been battling a wrist and rib injury sustained on a line drive back up the middle in the Samford series;

• With 131 career Southern Conference victories, head coach Bobby Moranda ranks second in WCU history behind Todd Raleigh (2000-07) who won 132 SoCon games at the head of the WCU program ... All told, Moranda has 253 wins at WCU, just four shy of second-place Todd Raleigh's 257 in Cullowhee.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE SUCCESS FOR WCU:

- Over the past three seasons, the Catamounts have won 54 of their last 79 regular season Southern Conference games;
- Western Carolina has claimed at least two wins in the trio of weekend against league foes in 18 of the last 27 conference series dating back to 2013;
- Western Carolina won at least one game against every Southern Conference opponent this season ... the Catamounts have not been swept by a SoCon opponent since April of 2012 (L-3 at Samford), a span of 31 conference series meetings since it last failed to win a league game in a three-game set ... During that time, WCU has recorded nine series sweeps vs. conference foes;
- Western Carolina has 13 regular season titles including back-to-back titles in 2013 and 2014 with nine tournament crowns ... WCU has also advanced to the SoCon Championship game 14 times.

VARIOUS NOTES ON THE 2015 WCU BASEBALL TEAM:

- WCU's longest winning streak of the season was three games - all coming at home in the three-game series sweep over The Citadel ... the Catamounts' longest losing skid this season is four games including the series-finale at ETSU, two nonconference games against UNCA in the home-and-home, and the opener at Samford;
- FIVE Catamounts have hit their first collegiate career home runs this season: sophomore Matt Smith belted his first career home run in the season-opening win over Purdue ... junior Reece Strong hit his first round-tripper on a solo shot at Liberty ... redshirt sophomore Jason Smith hit his first career homer against Furman ... Pierce Suttles hit two at ETSU including his first on a pinch hit ... Spencer Holcomb hit his first of two homers in the road series at Samford;
- Bradley Strong had a career-long, 31-game streak of reaching base safely which that dated back to last spring snapped at UNCG ... Strong saw his career-long hitting streak end at Presbyterian at 26-straight games that included 14 games dating back to last year;
- Western Carolina plated a SCHOOL-RECORD 15 runs in the bottom of the seventh inning of the 22-11 home win over Holy Cross ... the previous school benchmark was 14 accomplished a year ago against Rider at home;
- With the season-opening victory over Purdue, Western Carolina has won its season opener for SEVEN consecutive seasons - all but ONE under Moranda, who dropped his first-ever game to Marshall, 14-9, back in 2008 before rallying to claim the series, two games to one;
- Including three games in Cullowhee against Purdue to open the 2015 season, Western Carolina played nine of its first 13 games at home to open the year;
- WCU is the preseason favorite to win a third Southern Conference regular season championship, chosen by both the league's head coaches and the media;
- WCU appeared in the "Others Receiving Votes" portion of the Collegiate Baseball newspaper preseason poll;
- Freshman infielder Brett Pope had a tremendous start to his WCU career, posting a 5-for-5 showing at the plate with four singles and a double in his collegiate debut;
- Fourth-year starters Jacob Hoyle and Bradley Strong, as well as classmate closer Tyler Powell are joined by junior catcher Danny Bermudez as team captains for the Catamounts ... Bermudez is just the second underclassmen in recent years to be voted a team captain by his teammates, following two-time captain Cody Jones who also earned the honor as a junior.

CATAMOUNT BASEBALL CAREER CHARTS WATCH:

- WCU senior Bradley Strong became WCU's all-time career triples leader, now with 18 triples ... Strong is now tied for third in SoCon history for career triples, matching former UNCG standout Corey Overholtzer (20, 2007-10) ... He is just one triple shy of second-place Tony Martin of ETSU who had 19 triples from 1980-83 and two behind all-time record holder, Lee Curtis of the College of Charleston (20, 2002-03);

HONORING THE "LEGGETT NUMBER 7 LEGACY":

Western Carolina junior catcher Danny Bermudez enters the 2015 season in select company as he has been chosen to wear the coveted No. 7 jersey as this season's "Leggett No. 7 Legacy" recipient, as chosen by head coach Bobby Moranda and the Catamount baseball coaching staff. Bermudez is the fifth WCU player to wear the legacy honor all-time, but the first underclassman as the four previous honorees were all in their senior seasons.

Bermudez will wear the No. 7 jersey which was made famous at WCU by former coaching great, Jack Leggett.

Bermudez joins another former Catamount catcher in Stephen Notaro who was the first recipient of the honor in its inaugural year in 2011. Left-handed pitchers Vance Chavis (2012) and Morgan McKinney (2013) also wore the No. 7 jersey in their final seasons. A year ago, senior utility player Luke Gragg had the honor bestowed upon him to continue the tradition.

Entering his third season on the diamond for the Purple & Gold, Bermudez is a solid .273 career hitter which includes a career-best .305 average as a sophomore in 2014. In two seasons, he has appeared in 80 games with 53 career starts including 29 as a true freshman when he filled in for injured starter, Adam Martin. He has 12 career extra base hits including 10 doubles, and has driven in 22 runs over his first two years. Bermudez is also just the second junior team captain, following in the footsteps of former teammate Cody Jones who was a two-year captain.

Coming off of his career-best season in 2014, Bermudez was named to the Cal Ripken Collegiate League All-Star game last summer while playing for the Alexandria (Va.) Aces.

The annual "Leggett No. 7 Legacy" program was introduced by Moranda at the first "Celebration of Catamount Baseball" banquet held in conjunction with the 2011 season-opening weekend. The WCU coaching staff selects one player each year that is committed to keeping with the principles and integrity established by the former Catamount skipper during his tenure.

To earn the honor of the "Leggett No. 7 Legacy," a Catamount baseball player must have a passion for the game of baseball; show total intensity daily; do more with less; use adversity as preparation for greatness; and be committed to the ideals of T.E.A.M. by displaying: T-Toughness, E-Effort, A-Approach to find a way to M-Make it Happen.

Leggett, who is entering his 22nd season on the bench with the Clemson Tigers, spent nine seasons in the dugout in Cullowhee, amassing a program-best 302 career victories from 1983 through 1991. He guided the Catamounts to 10 combined Southern Conference championships and five NCAA tournament appearances.

He also helped shape the future of WCU baseball by recruiting and coaching his three successors in Keith LeClair (1992-97), Rodney Hennon (1998-99) and Todd Raleigh (2000-07). Leggett's three protégés combined to win 567 games and a combined eight SoCon titles in 15 seasons, while also capturing five SoCon Coach of the Year honors.

"It is an honor to continue to be remembered in such a manner at Western Carolina," Leggett was quoted as saying about the creation of the No. 7 Legacy. "WCU and Catamount baseball is a big part of my life and coaching career. I am privileged to have that number 7 hanging on the fence at Childress Field / Hennon Stadium, and honored to have a deserving student-athlete wear the number during the season."

During his tenure as an assistant coach at Wake Forest, Virginia and Georgia Tech, Moranda coached against Leggett's Clemson Tiger teams.

Three Catamounts Earn All-Southern Conference Honors

Bradley Strong, Danny Bermudez honored by coaches; Matt Smith by media

CULLOWHEE, N.C. – Western Carolina landed three players on the postseason All-Southern Conference teams announced Monday (May 18) morning by the league office.

Senior second baseman Bradley Strong was a unanimous first team All-SoCon selection at second base by both the head coaches and voting members of the SoCon Sports Media Association. He was joined by junior catcher Danny Bermudez on the coaches second team with sophomore designated hitter Matt Smith earning second team plaudits from the media.

It is the second-consecutive year that Strong has earned all-conference honors from the league's head coaches, capturing first team recognition as a junior in 2014. The postseason honors are the first for both Bermudez – who was the first team preseason catcher – and Smith.

Strong finished the regular season on-pace to claim Western Carolina's team Triple Crown for leading the squad in batting average (.353), home runs (10) and RBI (57) – each of which is already his single-season career-high. He would become just the 15th Catamount since 1961 to earn the Triple Crown. Strong additionally paces the Catamounts with 21 multi-hit games and has secured multiple RBI 17 times this season, twice driving home five-plus in a game. One of four team captains this season – and one of four to have started every game – Strong enters the conference tournament having matched his career-best with 20 stolen bases, moving into second all-time in WCU's record books for career steals (65) and attempts (84).

With a pair of triples in the home series win over Wofford, Strong became WCU's all-time career leader in the category. Now with 18 career triples, Strong is tied for third in SoCon history for career triples, matching former UNCG standout Corey Overholtzer (18, 2007-10). He is just one triple shy of second-place Tony Martin of ETSU who had 19 triples from 1980-83 and two behind all-time record holder, Lee Curtis of the College of Charleston (20, 2002-03).

A two-time, preseason All-America selection, Strong put together a career-long, 31-game streak of reaching base safely that dated back to last spring. He also tallied a career-long hitting streak of 26-straight games that included 14 games dating back to the 2014 season. At the close of the regular season, Strong ranked in eight major offensive categories in the SoCon including sixth in batting average (.353), fifth in slugging percentage (.623), tied for second in runs scored (55) and RBI (57), tied for sixth in hits (73) and doubles (16). His five seasonal triples rank him second in the league while his 20 stolen bases rank him fourth.

Bermudez collected second team honors from the league's coaches at the catcher position. He ranks third on the WCU squad among the starters with a .324 batting average, collecting 58 hits including 22 for extra bases this spring. His 14 doubles and seven home runs rank second only to Bradley Strong on the squad. He tallied a career-long 11-game hitting streak during the season for the Catamounts. Honored for his work behind the plate, the Cumming, Ga., native has also seen time at first base, in the outfield and as the designated hitter for WCU this season.

A junior team captain and the first junior recipient of the Leggett No. 7 Legacy at WCU, Bermudez was listed on the initial Johnny Bench Award Watch List in mid-March. He was plunked by a pitch 13 times during the regular season, the third-most of any player in the SoCon.

An outfielder by trade, Smith spent the bulk of his season as the designated hitter after a throwing arm injury forced him out of the field. He finished the regular season ranked second on the team among the regulars with a .328 batting average, collecting 61 hits to rank second on the team in 186 at bats. Smith has a career-best 11 doubles and five home runs on the season, scoring 31 times with 34 runs driven in. At one point this spring, Smith reached base safely in a team-high tying 17-consecutive games including a team season-best 14-game hitting streak.

Smith, who like Strong has started every game this spring, finished the regular season ranked third in the SoCon in on-base percentage at .450, a number bolstered by ranking tied for fifth in the league with 31 walks and fourth in HBPs with 12.

Smith earned his first SoCon Player of the Week honor following a stellar showing in the series at regular season champion, Mercer. The Fredericktown, Ohio, native hit a staggering .818 (9-for-11) with a double and a home run for a 1.182 slugging percentage against the Bears, scoring four runs while driving in three. He added three walks – one intentional – to bolster his on-base percentage while also stealing two bases in the series.

WHAT IS A CATAMOUNT?

Western Carolina University's unique mascot and nickname for its athletics teams seem to always bring about the same question when WCU plays on the road ... "What is a Catamount?" Webster's Dictionary defines "catamount" as "any of various wild cats, such as a cougar or lynx." Cats of the catamount variety, including the bobcat, roam the southern Appalachian Mountains where Western Carolina University is located.

The nickname evolved from a contest that was held on the Cullowhee campus in 1933. The school was called Western Carolina Teachers College at that time and its teams were known as "the Teachers."

Everyone on campus was invited to participate, and the usual names were suggested — Bears, Indians, Panthers. However, the college wanted an unusual name; a name that few others had and that everyone would not copy.

The contest came down to Mountain Boomers, a small ground squirrel that scampers about the woods and is extremely difficult to catch, and Catamounts. Catamounts was the favorite of Head Football Coach C.C. Poindexter and was the nickname chosen. Poindexter wanted his players to be Catamounts with "fierce spirit, savage attacks, and lightning quick moves."

Western Carolina University is the only football-playing school in the nation using the nickname, "Catamounts," with the University of Vermont in Burlington, VT, being the only other school playing under that moniker.

PURDUE – CULLOWHEE – FEB. 13-15:

• Western Carolina took 2-of-3 in its season-opening series ... the Catamounts won the season-opener, 17-6, thanks to a 5-for-5, four runs scored performance by freshman Brett Pope and a 4-for-5 showing by junior J.D. Long who drove in two in addition to matching his career-best hit tally ... Southern Conference Baseball Championship presented by Mountain Shore Properties

May 19-24, 2015 • Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park • Charleston, S.C.

*- Game 14 will be necessary if the winner of Game 10 also wins Game 12.

*- Game 15 will be necessary if the winner of Game 11 also wins Game 13. If game 14 is not necessary, Game 15 will start at 5 p.m.

*- If both bracket winners are undefeated, there will be no 5 or 8:30 p.m. games on Saturday and the championship game will be Game 14, which will be played on Sunday.

As tournament host, game times may be adjusted to permit The Citadel to play the 5 p.m. game each day as long as it remains in the winners' bracket.

Game times subject to change.

Tournament winner earns the Southern Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Regionals.
